Club Championship Weekend – 8/30 to 9/1/08:

This year's club championship was dominated by the grizzled veterans who had to stave off many of the up and coming young guns that were looking to make their mark. This year's event with close to 50 participants had the largest turnout in many years. The weekend's weather was perfect and we thank all the members for their participation.

Championship Flight:

On the 52nd hole, Peter Cassidy hit a six iron from 203 yards in the left rough over trees to within 4 feet, setting up an inevitable eagle.

This turned out to be the margin of victory of Mikey Marotta and Jeff Waaland in a tightly contested championship. Pete last won the Club Championship 11 years ago, so this year he relied on the pep talk from his friend 'Bud' to help him through his final round. Pete said that he will make himself available to all members that wish to talk to him about his rounds or visit the divot from his six iron in the 16th rough.

A Flight:

Dan Ehlers who was battling the "Kettle One" flu for 2 days played tremendously consistent golf to hold off

Tommy Kendrick and defending A Flight Champion, John Dix by 2 shots. Wielding a hot flatstick, Dan made every putt he looked at, about 122 feet of putts in the final day to clinch his victory. Congratulations are in order to a very popular Champion.

B Flight:

Kevin Flynn played very steady over two days to coast to victory for his first B Flight Championship. Defending B Flight Champion, Bill Codrington could not quite find the slot in his swing and finished a distant second.

C Flight:

Every time you turn around, Jim Varian seems to win another event. Congratulations to Jim in his C Flight win. Ray Skoglund finished second.

D Flight:

Congratulations to a hot Pat Capolla in winning this year's D Flight. Gaspare Perrelo finished second. (Gaspare's Picture was not available at time of publication).
